Webinar (13th June, 2021)

Innovative Institute of Law Organized Webinar on “Challenges and Concern in Citizenship Amendment Act 2019”. The Inaugural speech was delivered by Ms. Sheetal Sharma. Our two dynamic speakers Adv. Saloni Bahl and Mr. Abhilash Arun Sapre, advocated the relevancy and importance of CAA for India. They argued that social movements have struggled to weave difference into the notion of equality that informs the abstract notion of citizenship. They suggested that the universalism of citizenship can be made effective by taking into account the specific needs of people belonging to groups that are disadvantaged by the generalised application of common or uniform frameworks/standards of citizenship. Their constant theme was that the Constitution recognises differentiated citizenship so that members of specific ethnic, linguistic, racial and religious groups are incorporated into citizenship not only as individuals but also through their groups so their rights depend upon their group membership. Vote of Thanks was delivered by Dr Akhilesh Kumar Pandey HOD Innovative Institute of Law.

A visit to Luksar Jail was organised in the month of July. The purpose was to study the life of a prisoner. District Legal Service Authority has taken permission with jail department on behalf of the college. During jail visit a senior prison guard took us around the place. We passed two heavy gates, went through a long tunnel, turned to the right, and entered one of the cells. It was told by the guard that the population in the prison was one thousand and seven hundred men, and seventy women. Most of them were there for crimes of passion.

The windows were high and without bars. There were workshop rooms where the prisoners are engaged in shoe making and furniture making and painting, DLSA and the Jailor authorities informed the students and staff of Innovative Institute of Law about the Jail System and Jail Manual.
